

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, It is fitting for South Dakota to recognize outstanding contributions by special citizens of this great state; and,

Whereas, Barb Nold began her career in state government with the Bureau of Administration's Central Duplicating office located in the Capitol on October 10, 1984; and,

Whereas, Barb moved to the Kneip Building to staff the Quick Copy Center where she assisted staff with their printing needs and maintained the duplicating equipment and supplies for 10 years; and,

Whereas, In June 1991, Barb moved to the Central Services Building and continued to produce copy work for all offices within state government; and,

Whereas, Barb maintained a friendly and helpful attitude toward her customers and co-workers, always willing to print a "rush" job if it was within her ability to do so; and,

Whereas, Barb has always given time to activities in her church and the Prairie Rattlers Car Club, and enjoys playing Bingo, playing pinochle, and polka dancing, not to mention serving up her special Sunday "soup du jour" to anyone that stops by; and,

Whereas, Barb plans to retire from 21 years of state government employment on November 8, 2005, and will then have more leisure time to spend with her husband, Ervine, their four children, and eleven grandchildren.

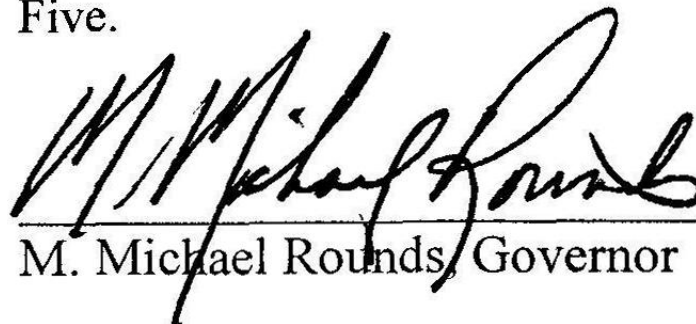

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 8, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and colleagues in offering Barb best wishes for a healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
